Harold Weisberg.

Dear Mr. Weisberg:

Will you kindly let me know the price of a paperback copy of "White Wash." Would it be contributed to hold a copy for me until I can get a check to you? I'm sure thousands of requests are pouring in.

You were just great on Alan Burke's program last night. Everyone I talked to today (and I was to a dinner) couldn't seem to stop talking about you and were ready to do for you. We are all hoping you will be on Mr. Burke's program again in the near future to explain why Mr. Ruby is apparently going to get away with silencing H. O. Oswald. "Something smells in Texas and D.C."

It delighted me to hear you put those three publicity-seeking lawyers ~~too~~ rout. I have nothing against lawyers in general. They are necessary evils but when they get smart-alecky, it means the least to see them slapped down. You were great.

I have never believed that case was as cut-and-dried as we were led to believe. Too many discrepancies between the actual assassination and the Warren Commission report. Someone somewhere has reason to whitewash the whole thing. I may be a Senior Citizen but I'm not senile and I want to read the truth.

Good luck on your book.

Sincerely,

Lillian E. Weber
